

The Stanford Code of Conduct

Guided by our values, the Code of Conduct should be the basis for our daily and long-term decisions

Stanford Values:

- Integrity
- Diversity
- Respect
- Trust
- Honesty
- Fairness
- Freedom of Inquiry and Expression

Strive at all times to maintain the highest standards of integrity and quality.

Treat each other fairly and with respect. Embrace diversity and inclusion.

Know and follow the laws, rules and policies that apply to your work.

Protect individual privacy and help secure data entrusted to Stanford.

Employ sound business practices and be prudent stewards of University resources.

Use University resources for business purposes only, not for personal gain.

External activities cannot interfere with responsibilities to the University. Disclose outside professional or financial interests.

Consult with your supervisor or Stanford's legal or risk team before responding to any formal request for information from an outside source.

Raise concerns about suspected Code of Conduct violations and cooperate fully in any investigations.
